Child Holocaust Survivors gather annually in cities around the world with 2nd, 3rd and 4th Generations. In this unique environment, we talk, listen, share, learn and discover shared legacies, new ways to educate and participate in intergenerational dialogue.

The Gathering features guest speakers, panels and workshops held in a secure and private space. Some workshops are open only to Survivors, others to Survivor Generations, and some to spouses and partners. The Gathering begins on Friday evening with a Shabbat dinner. Saturday and Sunday are focused on facilitated conversations with one another in designated workshops. Monday ends before noon.
